EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPÉENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME

FIRST SECTION

DECISION

Application no. 35139/14
Temur Damyrovych YULDASHEV and Violeta Viktorivna YULDASHEVA against Ukraine and Russia and 326 other applications
(see list appended)

The European Court of Human Rights (First Section), sitting on 5 May 2020 as a Committee composed of:

Aleš Pejchal, President,
Tim Eicke,
Jovan Ilievski, judges,
and Renata Degener, Deputy Section Registrar,

Having regard to the above applications lodged on the various dates indicated in the appended table,

Having deliberated, decides as follows:

THE FACTS

1. A list of the applicants is set out in the appendix. They were represented before the Court by Ms N.Y. Tselovalnichenko, a lawyer practising in Kyiv.

The circumstances of the case

1. Incidents giving rise to the applications

2. The facts of the cases, as submitted by the applicants, may be summarised as follows.

3. The applicants argued that from the beginning of April 2014 onwards armed separatist groups had started to seize official buildings and territory in the east of Ukraine and announced the creation of two so-called “People’s Republics”; namely the “Donetsk People’s Republic” and the “Lugansk People’s Republic”. In response, on 14 April 2014 the Ukrainian Government had begun what they termed an "anti-terrorist operation", involving the use of armed military force.

4. Some of the applicants also argued that Crimea had been "occupied" and "annexed" by the Russian Federation in February and March 2014.

5. The incidents which, according to the applicants, had taken place in the course of and subsequent to the developments in the preceding paragraphs and which formed the basis of their applications, can be summarised as follows:

-a number of houses belonging to some of the applicants in Eastern Ukraine had been damaged and, in some cases, completely destroyed during "shelling by pro-Russian militants or by Russian or Ukrainian armed forces". As a result, some of the applicants had been forced to live in destitute conditions without running water, gas, electricity, heating, food supplies or medication. The constant shelling by heavy weapons had also endangered their lives. Some applicants had had to abandon their villages, towns and cities and fled to other parts of Ukraine. The applicants had also been unable to have access to Ukrainian courts to claim compensation for the damage caused to their properties because the jurisdictions of the courts in the areas in Eastern Ukraine which were not under the control of the Ukrainian Government had been transferred to the relevant courts in the neighbouring regions that were controlled by the Ukrainian Government;

-some applicants and their relatives had been injured during the shelling and some of their relatives had been killed;

-some applicants and their relatives had been arrested and detained unlawfully by members of armed separatist groups who also carried out a number of abductions, robberies, and perpetrated ill-treatment and killings;

-some of the applicants' pension payments had been stopped by the Ukrainian Government;

-some applicants who lived in areas of Eastern Ukraine which were not controlled by the Ukrainian Government had been unable to vote during the Presidential and Parliamentary elections. They had also been afraid to speak the Ukrainian language and to express pro-Ukrainian views for fear of recriminations from the militants;

-there had existed no effective remedies within the meaning of Article 13 of the Convention for their complaints summarised above. Moreover, since the beginning of April 2014 official buildings in some parts of Eastern Ukraine had been seized and the activities carried out therein suspended and it had therefore been impossible for the applicants to have their Convention rights guaranteed effectively;

-a number of applicants, who are Crimean Tatars, had been forced to flee Crimea;

-some of the applicants who were living in various parts of Ukraine had been unable to freely reside and move through the territory of Crimea; and, finally,

-the applicants in fifty-seven of the applications directed their applications against the United Kingdom and alleged that, as well as the Russian Federation and Ukraine, the United Kingdom had also been responsible for their grievances. In that connection they alleged that the United Kingdom, by signing the Memorandum on security assurances in connection with Ukraine's accession to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons in Budapest on 5 December 1994, had become a guarantor of Ukrainian independence and security and had thus become duty-bound to take effective measures against the Russian Federation for "its military intervention in Ukraine". As the United Kingdom had not taken any such measures, it bore partial responsibility for the above-summarised incidents.

2. The Court's decision to bar Ms N. Tselovalnichenko

6. On 4 December 2018, in its examination of a number of applications in which the applicants – like the applicants in the present applications – were represented by Ms Tselovalnichenko, the Court decided, under Rule 36 § 4 (b) of the Rules of Court, that in view of her fraudulent and abusive behaviour in a number of cases lodged with the Court Ms Tselovalnichenko should be permanently barred from representing or otherwise assisting applicants in both pending and future applications.

7. In order to inform all applicants represented by her, notably those residing in areas that could not be reached by post, the Court issued a press release on 12 December 2018 (ECHR 433 (2018)) and invited the media to inform the public about its decision to bar Ms Tselovalnichenko (see Chepelenko and Others v. Ukraine (dec.), nos. 15117/17, 18635/17, 18655/17, 251/18 and 3633/18, §§ 17-18, 28 January 2020).

3. Attempts made to contact the applicants in the present applications

8. According to the information contained in the application forms submitted to the Court by the applicants in the present applications, the vast majority of them were living in the Donetsk and Luhansk regions of Eastern Ukraine at the time of the introduction of their applications. After issuing the above-mentioned press release on 12 December 2018, the Court sent letters to the applicants on 17 December 2018 with a view to notifying them that Ms Tselovalnichenko could no longer act as their representative. The letters also stated that it was open to the applicants to appoint new representatives to replace her at any time. Almost all of those letters were returned to the Court undelivered.

9. On 30 September 2019 a second attempt was made to contact the applicants and letters were sent to them once more. In those letters the applicants were asked to inform the Court by 25 October 2019 whether they wished to maintain their applications and, if so, to provide information about any important factual developments that might have taken place since their last correspondence to the Court. The applicants were warned that failure to reply to the Court's letter by the above-mentioned deadline could lead the Court to conclude that they were no longer interested in pursuing their applications and to strike them out of its list of cases. Replies were received in a small number of cases only – in some of which the applicants informed the Court that they had appointed new legal representatives – and the Court will continue to examine those cases. The letters sent to the applicants in the present 327 applications were either returned to the Court undelivered or no replies were received from the applicants.

COMPLAINTS

10. In respect of their allegations summarised in paragraph 5 above, the applicants relied on, inter alia, Articles 2, 3, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13 and 14 of the Convention and Article 1 of Protocol No. 1.

THE LAW

11. Having regard to the similar subject matter of the applications, the Court finds it appropriate to examine them jointly in a single decision.

12. The Court notes that, at the time of the introduction of their applications, the vast majority of applicants were living in the territories of the Donetsk and Luhansk regions which were outside the control of the Ukrainian Government and in which the Ukrainian postal service Ukrposhta had suspended its operations because of frequent attacks on its vehicles and employees by armed groups (see Chepelenko and Others, cited above, §§ 21 and 23; see also Tsezar and Others v. Ukraine, nos. 73590/14 and 6 others, § 9, 13 February 2018). As detailed above, in addition to issuing the press release on 12 December 2018, the Court also made two attempts to establish direct contact with the applicants by sending them letters, but those attempts were unsuccessful.

13. As the application forms provided by the applicants did not indicate any other contact details − such as alternative postal addresses, e-mails, telephone numbers etc.−the Court was also unable to contact the applicants by such means.

14. Moreover, the Court has not received any correspondence directly from the applicants since the introduction of the applications. It must be stressed in this connection that Rule 47 § 7 of the Rules of Court requires applicants to keep the Court informed of any change of their addresses and of all circumstances relevant to their application. The Court considers that the fluid nature of the situation surrounding the applicants' cases makes it all the more important for the Court to receive regular information and updates from the applicants.

15. The Court also reiterates that, on account of the independence of the legal profession from the State, the conduct of the legal representation is essentially a matter between the applicants and their lawyer (see Chepelenko and Others, cited above, § 33 and the case cited therein). Therefore, following the Court's decision to bar the applicants' representative, it was for that representative to inform her clients of such a pertinent development in their cases.

16. The Court is thus faced with a situation in which it is not being provided with any information by the applicants nor is it in a position to contact them, which makes it impossible for the Court to continue to examine these applications.

17. The Court considers that, in these circumstances, the applicants may be regarded as no longer wishing to pursue their applications, within the meaning of Article 37 § 1 (a) of the Convention. Furthermore, in accordance with Article 37 § 1 in fine, the Court finds no special circumstances regarding respect for human rights as defined in the Convention and its Protocols which require the continued examination of the case.

18. Finally, the Court reiterates that under Article 37 § 2 of the Convention it may decide to restore an application to its list of cases if it considers that the circumstances justify such a course.

19. In view of the above, it is appropriate to strike the cases out of the list.

For these reasons, the Court, unanimously,

Decides to join the applications;

Decides to strike the application out of its list of cases.
